Says Tier is Not the Man.

LEAD. S. D., Jan 10.- (Special.) Much evidence has been given by persons in both this city and Deadwood to provi that Harry Tier, who was arrested in this city a few weeks ago on the charge of murder committed in Hilliard, Wyo., many years ago, is not the guilty man. The latest testimony in Tier's favor is that of Henry Robinson, an undertaker of Deadwood, who was running a billiard hall at Hilliard at the time of the murder and acted as clerk for the coroner in taking down evidence. When Mr. Robinson came to the Hills he met Harry Tier, who was then going by the name of Lyons, but he was satisfied that he was not the man wanted.

LONDON, Jan. 10 .- The negetiations toward the formation of another iron and steel combination, which have been carried on recently in London, have reached a point where their culmination became practically assured.

The companies intending to amalagamate are the Canadian Steel company, the Lake Superior Power company, the American Steel company, the Otis Steel company, the Pittsburg Steel company and the Wellman-Seaver company of Cleveland. Combined with these, if the deal is completed, will be several English firms who will take part in the enterprise, financially and commercially.

He was something of a poet and had written several books of verse, which had more than ordinary interest by reason of a pathos that tinged all the lines and of a moral concluding each of his poetic productions. Nearly all the verses were dedicated to friends, Why He Was Called "Doc."

George Smith was fond of telling his newer friends how it happened that his Christian name came to be forgotten by all but intimates and the soubriquet. "Doc. was accepted in its stead a good many years ago. He explained it by telling of a time when he was a schoolboy in the Buckeye state and remained away from his recita tions for weeks at a time to nurse a sick mother. Belief that Rescue May Be Accomplished Now Communication is Established-Sea Still Running Very High.

MARSEILLES, Jan. 10 .- 6:30 p. m .- The life line connected with the Russic still holds good in spite of the tremendous seas run-WILL OF WILLIAM G. SAUNDERS, ning, but it has not yet been possible to take off the passengers. An attempt was about to be made to rescue them when the last dispatch from Faraman was re-reived. The attachment of the line was due to heroic efforts of twenty fishermen, who at tempted what appeared to be a hopeles task. The flat-bottomed craft was tossed about like a straw on the waves. The spectators watched it with bated breath Several times they thought the small craft was lost, but it finally got into a current which carried the boat to the starboard ide of the Russie's bow. A line was then brown on board the wreck.

The captain of the Russie, standing of the bridge, shouted: "We have not lost heart, and have confidence in you, but be quick. A moment later, amid great excitemen smong the spectators ashore, the line was seen to part. The fishermen made another effort and again got the line on board the stranded vessel. They then returned to the beach, where hundreds of willing hands pulled their boat high and dry, while thrilling scene of enthusiatm ensued. The fishermen were carried in the arms of the people out of reach of the waves. Later the line again parted, causing much anxiety, as the sea was becoming rougher Then the same fishermen made another attempt to reach the Russie in their flat bottomed boat. On the first attempt they were capsized into the surf and the men were thrown back onto the strand. They made a fresh effort, with a few newcomers ussisting and the boat's crew succeeded in getting a line on board the Russie. This time its security was enhanced by the line
